OUR PLEDGE REGARDING MEDICAL INFORMATION

Mental Health & Recovery for Licking and Knox Counties is designated by the State of Ohio as the Alcohol Drug Addiction and Mental Health (ADAMH) Board for Licking and Knox Counties and is a payer for mental health and alcohol and drug addiction treatment services funded by Federal, State, and other public money. At the board, we understand that medical information about you and your health is personal. We are committed to protecting medical information about you and safeguarding that information against unauthorized use or disclosure. We are required by law to: 1) assure medical information that identifies you is kept private; 2) give you Notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to medical information about you; and, 3) follow the terms of the Notice that is currently in effect. This Notice will tell you about the ways in which we may use and disclose medical information about you. We also describe your rights and certain obligations we have regarding the use and disclosure of your medical information. The Notice applies to all of the records that we have related to your care.

WHY WE COLLECT PERSONAL HEALTH INFORMATION

We collect personal information to:

- Determine eligibility for health care coverage
- Provide benefits and pay claims
- Conduct our service evaluation programs
- Provide other information for planning and improving mental health and substance abuse services in the community

We may also be required to collect and keep certain information so that we meet legal and regulatory requirements. We keep this information after a client's health care coverage ends.

PERSONAL INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We ask people seeking benefits to provide certain information when they complete an enrollment form. This information may include, for example:

- Name, Address, Phone
- Date Of Birth
- Marital Status
- Social Security Number
- Family Income

We may also receive personal information about you from others, such as:

- Health care providers (Mental Health & Addiction Health Providers, Doctors, Clinics, Hospitals)
- Other Alcohol Drug Addiction and Mental Health (ADAMH) Boards that provide coverage to our clients

- Business partners (companies with whom we have arrangements to assist us in providing products and services)
- Other government agencies (criminal justice system, child welfare, juvenile justice, etc.)

The information we collect from others may include, for example, eligibility, claims and payment information. We create and maintain a record of your enrollment in the mental health and or drug addiction and substance abuse system for the State of Ohio, and maintain records of payment for treatment you receive in the public system. From time to time, we also receive information from your treatment provider related to your diagnosis, treatment and progress in recovery, and any major unexpected emergencies or crises you may experience that help the Board to plan for and improve the quality of services for the region's citizens.

HOW WE MAY USE AND DISCLOSE MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU.

When you receive services paid for in part or in full by the ADAMH Board, we may use your personal information for such activities as conducting our normal board business known as health care operations. If the services we paid for were mental health services, we may also use your personal information for billing for such services. If you have a guardian or a power of attorney we will provide the information to your guardian or attorney in fact.

Examples of how we use your information include:

Payment for Mental Health and Addiction Services – We keep records that include payment information and documentation of the services provided to you. Your information may be used to obtain payment for your services from Medicaid, Medicare, insurance or other sources. For example, we may disclose personal information and/or services provided to you to confirm your eligibility for Medicaid and to obtain payment from Medicaid.

Health Care Operations – We use personal information to train staff, manage costs, conduct required business duties, and make plans to better serve you and other community residents who may need mental health or substance abuse services.

Other Services We Provide

We may also use your personal information to:

- Review and evaluate the quality, effectiveness, and efficiency of the services you have received;
- Conduct program and fiscal audits of programs who have provided you with services;
- Investigate major unusual incidents, report these kind of incidents and take steps to protect your health and safety;
- Prepare reports required by the Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services and the Ohio Department of Job and Family Services;
- Contact you for assistance in passing levies, unless you notify the ADAMH Board that you do not wish to be contacted for these purposes.

Sharing Your Personal Information

There are limited situations when we are permitted or required to disclose personal information without your signed authorization. These situations are:

- To protect victims of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence;
- To reduce or prevent a serious threat to public health and safety;
- For health oversight activities such as investigations, audits, and inspections;
- For local, state, federal agencies to monitor your services;
- For lawsuits and similar proceedings;
- For public health purposes such as reporting communicable diseases, work-related illnesses, or other diseases and injuries permitted by law; reporting births and deaths, and reporting reactions to drugs and problems with medical devices;
- When required by law;

- When requested by law enforcement as required by law or court order, except as limited by laws regarding disclosure of alcohol and other drug treatment;
- To coroners, medical examiners, and funeral directors;
- For organ and tissue donation;
- For workers' compensation or other similar programs if you are injured at work and are covered by workers' compensation or other similar programs;
- For specialized government functions such as intelligence and national security;

Uses and Disclosures That Require Your Permission

We are prohibited from selling your personal information, such as to a company that wants your information in order to contact you about their services, without your written permission.

We are prohibited from using or disclosing your personal information for marketing purposes, such as to promote our services, without your written permission.

Other uses and disclosures of your personal health information not covered by this Notice or the laws that apply to us will be made only with your written permission. If you provide us permission to use or disclose health information about you, you may revoke that permission, in writing, at any time. If you revoke your permission, we will no longer use or disclose your health information for the reasons covered by your written permission. You understand that we are unable to take back any disclosures we have already made with your permission, and that we are required to retain our records of the services that we provided to you.

Prohibited Uses and Disclosures

If we use or disclose your health information for underwriting purposes, we are prohibited from using and disclosing the genetic information in your health information for such purposes.

SAFEGUARDING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We maintain physical, electronic and procedural safeguards that comply with applicable federal and state laws and regulations to guard your personal information against unauthorized use or disclosure. Any third party processor used by the Board has signed an agreement with us requiring such entity to maintain the confidentiality of your personal information. We also restrict access to your personal information to those employees who need to know the information in order to perform their job duties. The Board maintains policies and procedures that prohibit employees and agents of the Board from using, disclosing, transferring, providing access to or otherwise divulging client health information to any person or entity other than to the individual who is the subject of the information.

POTENTIAL IMPACT OF OTHER APPLICABLE LAWS

If any state or federal privacy laws require us to provide you with more privacy protections than those explained here, then we must also follow that law. For example, drug and alcohol treatment records generally receive greater protections under federal law.

INDIVIDUAL CLIENT RIGHTS

You have the following rights regarding the medical information we maintain about you:

- Right to Request Restrictions. You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the medical information we use or disclose about you for payment or health care operations. We will consider all requests for restrictions carefully but are not required to agree to any requested restrictions.* You also have the right to request a limit on the health information we disclose about you to a family member who is involved in your care if you are receiving mental health service and have previously agreed to limited disclosure to such a family member. We will comply with any restrictions you request regarding disclosure to such a family member.*
- Right to Request Confidential Communications. You have the right to request that we communicate with you about health matters in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you can ask that we only contact you at work or by mail.*

- Right to Inspect and Copy. You have the right to access the personal information we collect upon request. Under certain circumstances, we may not share information that we have collected. For example, if the information is the subject of a lawsuit or legal claim or if release of the information may present a danger to you or someone else. Fees may apply to copied information.*
- Right to Amend. You have the right to request corrections or additions to your personal information. You must give the reasons for wanting the change.*
- Right to An Accounting of Disclosures. You have the right to request an accounting of disclosures made of your personal information that were not related to our business operations or your authorization. Under certain circumstances, we may not share information that we have collected. For example, if the information is the subject of a lawsuit or legal claim or if release of the information may present a danger to you or someone else. Your request must state the period of time desired for the accounting, which must be within the six years prior to your request. The first accounting is free but fee will apply if more than one request is made in a 12-month period.*
- Right to a Paper Copy of Notice. You have the right to a paper copy of this Notice. Although this Notice is available at our web site (www.mhrlk.org), you may obtain a paper copy of the Notice by contacting the Board office.

Requests marked with a star (*) must be made in writing. To exercise any of your rights described in this paragraph, please contact the Board Privacy Officer at the address or phone number listed below.
